

LBC SUNDAY SCHOOL.... WE'RE SAVING A SEAT FOR YOU!

FALL 2007 (Updated 11-20-07)

*Childrens Classes Ages K – 2nd at 9:30 and 3rd – 6th at 11:00. Children attend Kidz Street Worship when not in Sunday School.
Youth Sunday School is at 9:30 – Visit the Welcome Center for additional details*

|                        |                |                        |                |
|------------------------|----------------|------------------------|----------------|
| Singles & Young Adults | Young Families | Empty Nesters & Beyond | Non-age Graded |
|------------------------|----------------|------------------------|----------------|

8:00 Sunday School Age/Life Graded Classes

| Class                            | Description                                                          | Teacher          | Room #  |
|----------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------|---------|
| Empty Nesters 2A50 Something | For those getting used to life once the children have left the nest. | Mark Shackelford | 212-214 |

9:30 Sunday School Age/Life Graded Classes

| Class Name                                       | Description                                                                             | Teacher       | Room # |
|--------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------|--------|
| College Age SinglesEarly to Mid 20's         | Applying biblical principles to real life.                                              | John Crawford | FL224  |
| Singles 1Late 20's to Late 30's              | Singles who are beginning careers and starting life on their own.                       | Leif Leaf     | 208    |
| Newly/Nearly Married                             | Newlyweds (3 years or less) and engaged couples to be married in the next 12-24 months. | Mike Comodeca | 206    |
| New Beginnings                                   | Young couples who are beginning their lives together.                                   | Kory Kittle   | FL221  |
| New Families 1AMid 20's to Mid 30's          | Parents with crawlers and preschool age children.                                       | Randy Linduff | FL230  |
| New Families 2ALate 20's to Mid 30's         | Parents with preschool to early elementary age children.                                | Brett Gower   | FL226  |
| Young Family 1A30 Something                  | Parents with elementary age children.                                                   | Andrew Davey  | FL227  |
| Young Family 2Mid 30's to 40's               | Parents with children at various stages, from middle school and up.                     | Aaron Webb    | FL222  |
| Young Family 3A40 Something                  | Parents with high school children and beyond.                                           | Mark Morgan   | FL231  |
| Nest is Nearly Empty 1Mid 40's to Early 50's | Parents with children who are finishing high school or experiencing college             | David Clark   | FL228  |
| Empty Nesters 2B50 Something Plus            | Mostly couples whose children have left the nest.                                       | Ken Griffith  | 207    |

Additional 9:30 classes on the back

|                                                        |                                                                                                                                                          |                     |               |
|--------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------|---------------|
| Empty Nesters/Loving LifeLate 50's to .....        | Mostly couples whose children have left the nest.                                                                                                        | RandyRushing    | FL229         |
| Faithful Followers 160's & Beyond                  | Christians discovering life in their 60's and beyond.                                                                                                    | Larry Retherford    | 210           |
| 9:30 Non-Age Graded Classes and Electives       |                                                                                                                                                          |                     |               |
| Class Name                                      | Description                                                                                                                                       | Teacher      | Room # |
| Hidden TreasuresAll Ages Welcome                   | An in-depth and ongoing study through the Old Testament.                                                                                                 | Bill Branch         | Gym           |
| Women of FaithAll Ages Welcome                     | For women looking to connect and grow in their faith.                                                                                                    | Lisa Branch         | FL223         |
| 11:00 Sunday SchoolAge/Life Graded Classes |                                                                                                                                                          |                     |               |
| Class Name                                      | Description                                                                                                                                       | Teacher      | Room # |
| Young Family 4Parents for Life                     | Equipping parents with the Biblical tools needed to help their children succeed in life. *A 4 week Marriage Enrichment Course Ending December 9th | Greg Guthrie        | 212-214       |
| New Families 1BMid 20's to Mid 30's                | Parents with preschool to early elementary age children.                                                                                                 | EricBrandenburg | FL226         |
| Nest is Nearly Empty 2Mid 40's to Early 50's       | Parents with children who are finishing high school or experiencing college                                                                              | Dan Griffin         | FL228         |
| Faithful Followers 360's and Beyond                | Christians discovering life in their 60's and beyond.                                                                                                    | Howard Rhoden       | 210           |
| 11:00 Non-Age Graded Classes and Electives      |                                                                                                                                                          |                     |               |
| Class Name                                      | Description                                                                                                                                       | Teacher      | Room # |
| Digging Deeper                                         | For those who want to "dig deeper" into truths of scripture.                                                                                             | Dave Byars          | FL230         |
| In Any Language                                        | This is a non-age graded class especially for international believers. (This class is taught in English.)                                                | Jeff Goss           | FL225         |

ROOMS BEGINNING WITH "FL" ARE LOCATED IN THE FAMILY LIFE CENTER